

Steps to Ask for a Temporary Restraining Order (TRO) and Temporary Orders in a Divorce with Children

Instructions:

Follow these steps to ask for a Temporary Restraining Order (TRO) and Temporary Orders.

Do not use these instructions if you need Temporary Orders only.

Forms Included:

- Motion for Temporary Restraining Order, Temporary Injunction, and Temporary Orders
- Affidavit in Support of Request for TRO
- Temporary Restraining Order and Order to Appear (TRO)
- Order to Appear
- Proposed Support Decision and Information
- Temporary Orders
- Standard Possession Order (if a Standard Possession Order is not what you are seeking, please ask for other options at the Law Library Reference Desk)

Talk to a lawyer if you have questions.

Step 1: Fill out these forms.

- Motion for Temporary Restraining Order, Temporary Injunction, and Temporary Orders
- Affidavit in Support of Request for TRO (Don't sign until you are in front of a notary)
- Temporary Restraining Order and Order to Appear (TRO)
- Order to Appear

Note: If you are asking for temporary child support and/or spousal support, attach a blank copy of the Proposed Support Decision and Information form to your TRO form and Order to Appear form.

How do I write my Affidavit in Support of Request for TRO?

Your affidavit should explain to the court why you believe a TRO is necessary and why you can't wait for a hearing. Include specific facts.

Sign your Affidavit in front of a notary.

Step 2: Make copies of the Motion and Affidavit. Make a copy for yourself and each party listed in the Petition for Divorce you or the other party filed to start the case. A copy machine is located at the Law Library. Copies are 20 cents per page and the copy machines accept silver coins and $1 bills.

Step 3 Take completed forms to Tarrant County Family Law Center – 200 E. Weatherford St., Fort Worth, Texas 76196.

File your Motion and Affidavit with the clerk. The clerk will keep your original documents and stamp and return your copies to you.

Ask to make an appointment with the Judge to hear your Motion for Temporary Restraining Order, Temporary Injunction, and Temporary Orders

What if the Respondent has a lawyer? You must tell the Judge if the Respondent has a lawyer. You will be required to give the lawyer a chance to be present when you give your paperwork to the Judge. The letter should tell the lawyer the time and place of your appointment with the Judge and include a copy of your Petition, your Motion, and Affidavit.

Go to your appointment with the Judge. The Judge will review your paperwork. The Judge will ask you to explain under oath why you believe the Judge should sign your proposed TRO. You must tell the Judge if you have asked for a TRO before and tell the Judge if there are any other court orders in effect. The Judge will listen to your testimony. The Judge may or may not sign your proposed TRO. The Judge will make orders based on the law. You must be respectful of the Judge at all times, whether or not the Judge signs your TRO.

If the Judge decides not to sign a TRO, ask the Judge if he or she will sign an Order to Appear instead. An Order to Appear orders the other party to come to court for your temporary orders hearing.

Get a date and time for your temporary orders hearing. Write the date and time of the hearing on the TRO or Order to Appear signed by the Judge.

Ask the clerk to issue the paperwork necessary to have the other party or parties in your case personally served with your (1) Motion for Temporary Restraining Order, Temporary Injunction, and Temporary Orders, (2) your Affidavit in Support of Request for TRO, and (3) the TRO or Order to Appear signed by the Judge. If the other party or parties live in Tarrant County, ask the clerk to forward the paperwork to a Tarrant County Constable for service. If the other party or parties do not live in Tarrant County, get information on service outside of Tarrant County at the Law Library.

Unless you are low-income and file a Statement of Inability to Afford Court Costs, you must pay an issuance and service fee. You may get the Statement of Inability to Afford Court Costs form from the Law Library.

(Note: If you are filing your Motion for Temporary Restraining Order, Temporary Injunction, and Temporary Orders at the same as your Petition, the other party or parties can be served with everything at the same time.)

Step 4 Prepare for your temporary orders hearing.

Ask a lawyer to help you get ready. A lawyer can help you get ready by:

- explaining the law and how it applies to the facts in your case;
- telling you what the Judge expects;
- giving you advice about the best strategy for your case;
- determining the most helpful evidence to present in your case;
- preparing you to testify;
- helping you decide what witnesses to bring;
- preparing questions to ask your witnesses and the other party in court;
- writing proposed orders that are unique to your situation; and/or
- helping you reach an agreement with the other party before the hearing.

Fill out the Proposed Support Decision and Information form if you or the other party are asking for temporary child support and/or spousal support. Bring the completed form and at least 2 copies to the temporary orders hearing. You must give a copy of the completed form to the Judge and the other party or parties before the hearing starts.

Fill out the Temporary Orders form and the Standard Possession Order form. Ask a lawyer to review your form. Please be aware that the Law Library employees are not allowed to review forms.

Practice what you want to say to the Judge. Make a list of the orders you want and practice saying them. Try not to take more than 3 minutes to say what you want. If possible, go to the courthouse and observe a temporary orders hearing. Court proceedings are usually open to the public.

Make a Trial Notebook. A notebook will help you organize your thoughts and paperwork so that you can present your case to the court more effectively. You may want to include the following in your notebook:

- A list of specific orders you want the Judge to make
- A list of what you want to tell the Judge when you testify
- A list of questions to ask the other party in front of the Judge
- A list of questions to ask your witnesses
- Any evidence, such as pictures or documents, you would like to show the Judge (Talk to a lawyer about how to properly introduce your evidence.)

If it's safe, talk to the other side before court. Make a list of the issues you agree on and those you need the Judge to decide.

Step 5 Go to your Temporary Orders Hearing.

Dress neatly. Don't wear shorts, t-shirts with inappropriate words or pictures, tank tops, or flip-flops.

Get to the courthouse at least 30 minutes early. You will need to find parking, get through security, and find the correct courtroom.

Bring:

- Money for parking (parking meters accept coins and credit cards only, not dollars)
- A copy of the paperwork you filed with the court
- Your completed Proposed Support Decision and Information form
- Your trial notebook
- Extra paper and pens
- Any witnesses you would like to testify at the hearing
- Any evidence, such as pictures or documents, you would like to show the Judge (Talk to a lawyer about how to properly introduce your evidence in court)

Don't bring: weapons or children. (Children can be a distraction from the important events taking place and many topics that come up are inappropriate for children to hear. If you must bring children, bring someone with you who can watch them outside the courtroom.)

Find your courtroom. If you are unsure ask the deputies at the front door.

While in the courtroom:

- Sit quietly. Watch and listen. This will help you when it's your turn
- Turn off all cell phones and electronics (or they may be taken away from you)
- Don't chew gum or bring food or drinks into the courtroom
- Stand up when the judge enters or exits the courtroom

When it's your turn to be heard:

- Address the Judge as "Your Honor." Stand up when you talk to the Judge (unless you're in the witness stand).
- Be ready to tell the Judge exactly what orders you want. If you get nervous just read from your list.
- Be able to explain why the orders you want are best for your family. Focus on what is most important.
- Try to control your emotions so that you can tell your story in a way that is Understandable.
- When the other side is talking to the Judge, do not interrupt or react by sighing or gesturing. This will hurt your case. Even if you think the other side is being dishonest, wait until it's your turn to talk.
- Be respectful towards the Judge and everyone else in the courtroom at all times.
- If you have a question about how to proceed, ask the Judge.

When the hearing is over, be ready to write down the Judge's decision. Use your list to see if the Judge has made orders about all of the issues you wanted the Judge to decide. Let the Judge know that you have a proposed temporary orders form. The Judge may decide to use your form or may decide to use another form. The Judge may also ask you to hire an attorney to write the temporary orders.
